Associate

Tara is a senior associate in our Real Estate Group where she practices in the areas of condominium development, commercial sales and acquisitions, and financing.

Tara acts for experienced developers as well as family-owned or first-time builders assisting them in all stages of development including creating joint ventures or limited partnerships and completing complex land assemblies leading ultimately to condominium and low-rise developments or innovative affordable housing projects.

Alongside real estate, Tara's passion for human rights advocacy has also seen her take part in grassroots lobbying efforts in Washington, DC as well as guiding a European parliamentary delegation to Kurdish cities in Turkey.
