Tax Litigation

We represent a wide range of clients in tax disputes. In conjunction with the firm's Tax Group, the Litigation Group represents individuals, businesses and corporations facing income tax and HST reassessments on appeals to the Tax Court of Canada and the Federal Court of Appeal.

We have litigated cases relating to income versus capital gain deductibility of expenses, research and development credits, shareholder benefits, collectability of HST in a variety of circumstances, limits of CRA audit rights, and numerous other issues. We have the advantage of extensive experience in litigating the underlying business and real estate issues which arise in tax cases, together with the support of the expertise of our firm's highly respected Tax Group. This collaboration produces a highly effective approach which benefits our clients in successfully resolving any tax dispute.
