

Tax Planning

We represent our clients at all stages of the audit, appeals and court process, such as:

- structuring and reorganizing business organizations - corporations, partnerships, professional corporation, joint ventures and unlimited liability corporations
- negotiating effective partnership, shareholder and joint venture agreements
- structuring and implementing estate freezes
- negotiating and implementing butterfly transactions and other reorganizations
- various forms of structuring investments
- succession planning
- structuring private and syndicated real estate ventures
- structuring mergers, acquisitions and divestitures
- settling business disputes
- utilizing tax-effective financing structures
- executive compensation